Krisztina writes: . It is said that our body is made up with 60 trillion cells, and each cell has different vibration depending on its role. As you may know, vibrations emit sounds. Needless to say, they are the sound that we cannot hear, though, we can say that all cells and organs emit sounds as well. As a matter of fact, when a malfunction occurs in the body, that is when the body is unbalanced, and so the vibrations within the body are not in harmony. In other words, I would say, when it is non-resonant, the malfunction occurs in the body. In fact, beautiful symphony is always being played in our body. When the vibration part of the symphony within our body is collapsed, body becomes disordered. In order to remedy such a condition, we give the correct or right vibration to such disordered body, then it will be corrected to the shape that it should be originally.
